

Current role	Website Designer at Partnership to End Human Trafficking and Creative Associate at Partnership to End Human Trafficking
Experience	Enterprise, Fundraising, Social Impact, Community, Web Design
Technologies	CSS, HTML, JavaScript, Canva, ChatGPT, Google Workspace

Outside of work I...
Outside of work, I enjoy crafting and learning new technologies, applying both to projects that support non-profits and create positive change."

Work experience

Website Designer, Partnership to End Human Trafficking  Mar 2025 - Present (1m)

Empowering survivors through programs and advocacy
Enterprise · Fundraising · Social Impact · Community · Web Design

- CSS
- HTML
- JavaScript
- Canva
- ChatGPT
- Google Workspace

- Implemented responsive web design to optimize viewing experience on all devices.
- Utilized HTML, CSS, and other technologies for interactive website features.
- Conducted comprehensive quality assurance checks to detect bugs before website launch.
- Designed visually appealing and user-friendly PEHT website.
- Collaborated with PEHT staff to translate design requirements into functional website layouts. Enhanced user engagement by 25% through interactive features and responsive layouts."

Creative Associate, Partnership to End Human Trafficking  Jul 2024 - Present (8m)

Empowers survivors with housing, advocacy & sustainable prog
Social Impact

- Canva
- Google Workspace

- Enhanced financial sustainability of the non-profit by crafting handmade items for sale both online and in a retail store.
- Generated funding for housing initiatives through the creation of original paintings.
- Ensured high standards of workmanship by identifying and rectifying design or process flaws.
- Demonstrated strong organizational skills by managing production of handmade products within strict timelines.
- Maintained a flawless quality record for handmade items, highlighting meticulous attention to detail.
- Key contributor to operational efficiency of social enterprise by producing inventory for online and physical stores.

Education

AnnieCannons

Jan 2025 - Present (2m)

Software Development Software Development

- Gained advanced proficiency in Google Workspace for streamlined workflows and team collaboration.
- Improved website functionality and design by fixing bugs and implementing responsive navigation features.
- Mastered Flexbox, Grid, and Box Model techniques to build modern, visually engaging web layouts.
- Strengthened problem-solving skills through team-based debugging sessions and coding projects.

Young Parent Program

Feb 2006 - Jul 2006 (5m)

GED General Educational Development

- Conducted a research project on renewable energy impacts in small communities, showcasing analytical and organizational skills.
- Scored in the top 10% nationally on the G.E.D. mathematics test, demonstrating strong problem-solving abilities.

Springfield Technical Community College

Jan 2005 - Apr 2006 (1y 3m)

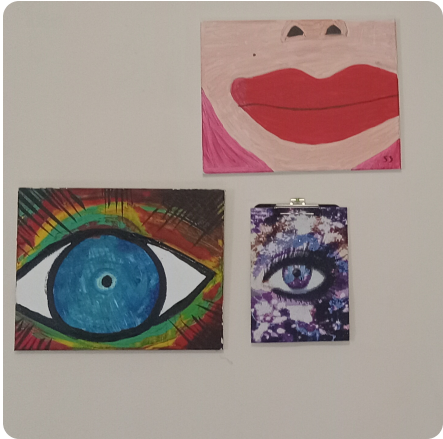

College (3.2) liberal Arts & Sciences

- Excelled in Communication coursework, delivering persuasive speeches on topics like climate change solutions.
- Completed an in-depth research project on the civil rights movement, earning academic recognition.
- Participated in regional Debate Club competitions, enhancing public speaking and critical thinking skills.

Snippets

Painting for Partnership to End Human Trafficking @ peht.org

Created handmade crafts and paintings supporting housing programs for survivors of human trafficking. Strengthened debugging and coding skills through AnnieCannons projects, mastering tools like Flexbox and Grid. Contributed to impactful initiatives, blending creative and technical expertise to drive meaningful change.

More about me

I want to work for a company that...

I want to work for a company that values innovation, empowers growth, champions diversity, and makes an impact. A place where my creative and technical skills can help solve meaningful challenges.

I'm excited to work for a fast-growing company because...

I'm excited to work for a fast-growing company because it fosters innovation, offers opportunities to learn and grow, and allows me to contribute to impactful projects in a dynamic environment.

Outside of work I...

Outside of work, I enjoy crafting and learning new technologies, applying both to projects that support non-profits and create positive change."

Interests

Passionate about crafting, painting, and exploring new technologies. I enjoy applying creativity and technical skills to impactful projects that support non-profits and make a positive difference.